Participant's Profile: Women Faculty Members

On the occasion of International Women's Day, the Women's Grievance Committee of S.S.B.T. College of Engineering & Technology, Jalgaon organized a one-day educational and recreational trip for women faculty members on 7 March 2026. The visit aimed to promote women's empowerment, well-being, bonding, and awareness of cultural heritage, aligning with institutional values considered under activities for gender equity and women empowerment.

The trip was arranged to two well-known historical and religious places in Jalgaon district: Unapdeo (Taluka Chopda) and Manudevi Temple. A total of 41 women faculty members from various departments enthusiastically participated in the program.

The journey began in the morning from the college campus. The first destination was Manudevi Temple, prominent pilgrimage and historical location in Jalgaon district situated amidst scenic hills. The participants visited the temple, experienced the spiritual environment, and enjoyed the natural beauty of the surrounding area.

After spending quality time at the group proceeded to Unapdeo, flowing warm water stream. The participants explored the heritage location, appreciated the natural surroundings, and discussed the cultural importance of the place. The visit provided an opportunity for the faculty members to relax, interact, and strengthen professional as well as personal connections outside the workplace.

The program helped create a supportive and encouraging environment for women faculty, promoting mutual understanding, stress relief, and teamwork. Such activities contribute significantly to the mental well-being, confidence, and empowerment of women employees.

The trip also served as a platform for informal discussions regarding personal growth, professional development, and work-life balance.

The trip concluded in the evening with the group returning safely to the college campus. Overall, the activity was highly successful in promoting women’s empowerment, institutional bonding, and awareness of local heritage, making it a valuable initiative related to gender sensitization and women empowerment activities.

Feedback & Analysis:The Women’s Grievance Committee successfully coordinated the event, ensuring smooth travel arrangements and participation. All participants expressed appreciation for the initiative and suggested organizing similar programs in the future.

Outcomes: Improved bonding and coordination among women faculty members.Participants returned refreshed, contributing to better productivity and engagement in academic activities.Encouragement of positive workplace culture and gender support initiatives.
