Date and Venue/ Location	15 th March 2019 College Play Ground (Basketball court)
Aim/Purpose	The aim of organizing such street play and making students perform them in person is to spread awareness and prevent atrocities that are being committed against women in India.
Objectives	The objective of the event is to <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Celebrate women's achievements 2. Raise awareness about women's equality 3. Lobby for accelerated gender parity
Participants	15
Participants Profile	On the occasion of International Women's day, students from Electrical Engineering Department, SSBT's COET, BambhoriJalgaon organized a street play at their campus highlighting theme on women empowerment.
Description about the program	In order to salute the life of a woman and celebrate her freedom and rights to showcase the spirit of empowerment of women in the society, EESA organized the first ever street play in SSBT on 15 th March 2019. The event was performed by the successful participation of 2 nd year Electrical Engineering students. To commemorate International Women's day, a street play was staged in the college campus on the theme 'Women Empowerment'. It was watched by students, Principal and the staff of the college. The play focused on spreading awareness about crimes committed against women. Through the street play, students highlighted social problems and evils that are targeted towards women including female foeticide, acid attacks against girl students and the menace of eve-teasing and misbehaviour.
Outcome	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Such plays empower women and people to speak up against atrocities and exploitation those women go through. 2. To implement Women's Education for the attainment of equal status of women in all aspects of social political and economic development within the community and the nation. 3. To work for peace, Women's Rights, Women's Education, economic and social justice.
Recommendations	Such program should be arranged every year
